

4° 10

Claim No. 10.

Under Article 11. Treaty of 14th June 1866
with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Adam Dyle, aged 40.
Freedman of the Creek Nation, and a Soldier in Company "G" 2nd Kansas Colored Regiment, - a Refugee, being duly examined and sworn (He understanding and conversing in the English language,) deposes and says: that some time during the month of July 1863, he was then living on his place, about fifteen miles from North Fork Town, Creek Nation, and was driven off by the Rebel soldiers under the command of Colonel Cooper, and was compelled to fly and abandon his home and property. - And this deponent further says that, at the time he was so compelled to fly from the rebel troops he necessarily abandoned the following specified property, and that he has never since recovered
the same, or any part thereof - to say:

5. Five Horses,	at $60. each	$ 300.00
10. Ten Hogs (Barrows)	$ 15. "	150.00
160. One hundred & Sixty Bushels Corn	at 75¢	120.00
1 Saddle & 1 Bridle	valued at	15.00
1 Cow and calf	" "	15.00

Making a total value of ~~~~~ 600.00.
Six hundred dollars. And further this deponent saith not.

Award.

The loss of property specified above is deemed established by the foregoing testimony; Also the status of claimant. The amount claimed, however, is considered excessive. Upon inquiry it is found that the values of the different kinds of property, at the time the loss occurred, ruled as follows:-

Horses,	$30.00 Each.
Hogs, - (Barrows)	2.00
Corn, per bushel,	} No award - Not supported by evidence.
Saddles + Bridles,
Cows + calves, -

In consideration of these, and all other facts attainable, bearing upon the case, we believe it just and equitable to award this claimant Adam Dyle One hundred and seventy dollars

$170.00

The undersigned Kessy Island and Sam Bonner Freedman, and Native of the Creek Nation, being jointly examined and sworn (they both, conversing in & understanding the English language,) depose and say: that they have no personal or pecuniary interest in the foregoing claim of Adam Dyle, and that the same is true in every circumstantial particular as to flight and abandonment of house and property: That they know, of their own knowledge, of the loss of the Horses and the Hogs specified in the foregoing Affidavit, but do not, of their own knowledge, know of the loss of the Corn, the Cow and Calf and Saddle and Bridle therein specified. - And further these deponents do not say. -
